

Publication Ethics

The Executive Board of Forum Statisticum Slovacum journal (hereafter abbreviated as EB FSS) is fully associated with the principles of ethics of publication declared by the Committee of Publication Ethics. The EB FSS is committed to upholding the highest standards of publication ethics and takes all possible measures against any publication malpractices. Authors submitting their works to the journal for publication as original articles attest that the submitted works represent their authors' contributions and have not been copied or plagiarized in whole or in part from other works.

An editor at any time evaluate manuscripts for their intellectual content without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, religious belief, ethnic origin, citizenship, or political philosophy of the authors.

The EB FSS expects all parties participating in the publication of FSS commit to these publication ethics. Our Editorial Board does not tolerate plagiarism or other unethical behaviour and will remove any manuscript that does not meet these standards.
